

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 25, 2006

Contact: Camille Valencia

(916) 653-7113

First Meeting of Newly Seated California State Historical Resources Commissioners: Six Places Being Considered for Historic Registry

SACRAMENTO – The California State Historical Resources Commission will consider applications for state and federal historic designation in Sacramento on Friday, February 3. The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. at the State of California Office Building #9, 744 P Street, Auditorium in Sacramento. This will be the inaugural meeting for six newly appointed commissioners. Their biographies are available at www.ohp.parks.ca.gov. This facility is accessible to people with disabilities.

National Register of Historic Places applications that are scheduled for action include:

J.C. Carly House, Sacramento, Sacramento County
Walnut Street School, Woodland, Yolo County
Warner Hutton House, Saratoga, Santa Clara County
Montgomery Hotel, San Jose, Santa Clara County
Southern Pacific Train Depot, Santa Barbara, Santa Barbara County
St. Raymond's Church, Dublin, Alameda County

A National Register application that is scheduled to be discussed includes:

Port of San Francisco Embarcadero Historic District, San Francisco,
San Francisco County

The public may present oral statements at the hearing at the appropriate time. Written comments about any subject on the agenda must be submitted to the undersigned at the address above.

Inquiries may be directed to Recording Secretary Camille Valencia by phone at (916) 653-7113, by fax at (916) 653-7718 or by mail to the State Historical Resources Commission, Post Office Box 942896, Sacramento, California 94296-0001. Notices and agendas for Commission tours, workshops, and meetings are available at www.ohp.parks.ca.gov.

#

For energy efficient recreation visit
California State Parks online at <http://www.parks.ca.gov>

